

I am an extra class and my call is N8GIO. I think morse code has outlived its usefulness and should be totally eliminated as a testing element for an amateur radio license. Thank you